FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOME BUILDERS HONOR EXCELLENCE

The Hickory & Catawba Valley Homebuilders Association recently awarded their annual Award of Excellence to a builder and associate member. This prestigious award is voted on by the membership for exemplary service to the HBA. Don Harrington of Harrington Construction won the builder award and Jim Grover of TeCCoN won the associate award.

The Home Builders of Hickory & Catawba Valley is a trade association that consists of building industry professionals striving to fulfill the American dream of home ownership since 1970. A not-for-profit organization, the Home Builders Association provides networking and educational opportunities, sponsors community development initiatives and represents its members in matters of government relations and advocacy.
